Thank you Linda and Joe for your generosity. The CT Chapter once again had a wonderful day at your farm!

CT CHAPTER MEETING Robert's Farm - June 10, 2007

Members present: Evelyn Kropp, Sue Auclair, Peggy Loeffler, Leila Baroody, Linda Roberts, Peg Davidson, Karen Tierney, Beth Robinson, Sarah Veutefeuille, Georgia Pappas and Trish Sauve from Eastern New England Chapter, and Sheila Thompson, guest.

Treasurer's report:

Linda Roberts read the Treasurer's Report in April's absence and it was approved.

Programs/Events: Peggy Loeffler

Peggy reported on the AOPA Expo on Oct. 4, 5, & 6 in Hartford. Anyone interested in volunteering at the 99 booth in two hour increments can sign-up on the schedule sheets. A 99 breakfast is planned on Saturday at the Marriott from 7:00-9:00 with a speaker and will be opened to anyone at the EXPO, tickets are $28.00 The room holds 150 people.

Ways & Means – Linda Roberts (in Glenna's absence)

Glenna will need volunteers for the International conference (Fly Market) in Boulder, Colorado. $39.00 was made from the sale of items at the Section meeting in Stockbridge, MA.

Airmarking: G. Blackwell submitted

Volunteers are needed. If anyone knows of an airport in need of taxiway marking or compass rose, please notify Glenna.

Scholarship: Beth Robinson

Beth said that there are only two applicants for the Ct Chapter Scholarship, and a decision for a winner will be made by the end of the month. The amount will be $1,000.00.

Membership committee: Sharon Porven

Sharon has agreed to be the chairman of the membership committee. Thank you Sharon.

Old Business. Peggy Loeffler –

The girl scout sleepover went very well with approximately 100 scouts. The girls asked several good questions of the panel at the end of the day. The Section Meeting at the Red Lion Inn went very well. Thank you Glenna for all your efforts.

New Business: Linda Roberts

A hand out was given out about the Poker Run on August 25th hosted by Katahdin Wings Chapter. If you would like to volunteer e-mail Lori Plourd.

Currently there is approximately eight members who will attend the International conference in Colorado.

Georgia Pappas discussed the proposed amendments to the By-Laws at the conference:.

- Membership for student pilots and dues to be paid
- Terms of office for the President and Vice President
- Clarification in wording for nominating, election and procedures committees

Approval was given for the business size ad for the International program.

Karen Tierney asked about selling scarves with the 99 logo. Linda will check into the issue of using the 99 logo on clothing as we may need permission. Also, Linda has T-shirts from past functions which she will bring to the International conference for sale.

Leila Baroody mentioned that Cher Hanssen has passed her type rating for the Hawker and will be working as a captain. Congratulations.

Peggy Loeffler mentioned that Beth Robinson will be leaving the chapter as she is moving. The 99s thank her for all her help.

Sue Auclair, Secretary
